NORTH HILLS

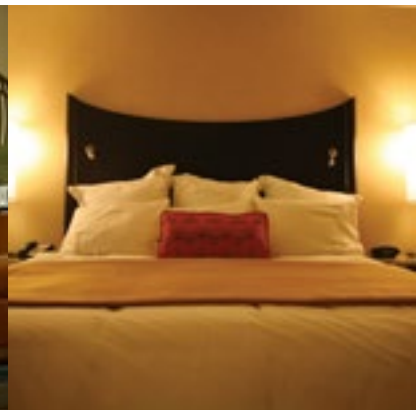

Live, work, shop, dine, and play at North Hills. This innovative, multi-faceted heart of the Midtown Raleigh district offers many options to live and stay a while— with a mix of four-star hotel rooms, apartments, condominiums, town homes, and single-family garden homes. Parks and gathering spaces offer plenty of fresh air, while conveniences such as dry cleaning, banks, and pharmacies are just a leisurely stroll away. Quality-of-life amenities are also at your fingertips, such as renewing spas, salons, and a state-of-the-art 60,000 square foot gym. Entertainment venues, such as a 14-screen cinema, a sophisticated bowling lounge, and bars with selections that would make your head spin are right next door. Premier dining establishments, high-end boutiques, and cafés sit alongside unique local shops and national retail anchors.

LOCATION

North Hills is a nexus to the Triangle and is easily accessible to all points of Central North Carolina. North Hills is located at the intersection of Interstate 440 and Six Forks Road, and provides direct access to Interstates 40, 540, 85, plus US Highways 401, 70, and 1. Research Triangle Park, Durham, Chapel Hill, and other central North Carolina cities are minutes away.

For those less familiar with Midtown, it is eye-opening to see the myriad of entry and egress options resulting from North Hills' integration with surrounding neighborhoods.
